Miniature Quilt Exhibition

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Watson House & Gallery is the homestead of Homer Watson, Canada's first noted landscape artist (1855 - 1936). In 1980, the house and surrounding three acre property were designated under the Ontario Heritage Act as being of architectural and historic significance.

Our mission is to preserve and celebrate the legacy of Homer Watson's creative spirit by stimulating the appreciation, enjoyment and practice of the visual arts.

It is in this spirit that Homer Watson House & Gallery challenges quilters to create a work of quilted art that explores the theme "Reflections".

Terms of Entry

1. Quilts must be finished, clean and in good condition.
2. All entries must meet the definition of a quilt, i.e. they are made of three layers with quilting that penetrates all 3 layers and is visible on the front and back. Any technique is acceptable.
3. Each quilt must have hanging sleeve and rod and be without frame.
4. Quilts should feature reduced scale and miniaturization. If blocks are used, they must not measure more than 4" square. Miniature wholecloth quilts are acceptable. Quilts must measure 12" square including binding/edge finishing and be hung square (no diamond orientation please).
5. Quilts may be of original design or based on quilt blocks or patterns in the public domain. Appropriate credit must be given to designers, teachers or others who contributed to the quilt design or execution. No kits, panels or commercial patterns will be accepted.
6. Entrants will agree to have images released newspapers, magazine articles and social media to allow promotion of the exhibit, gallery and country.
7. Insurance is provided to protect the art work from vandalism and theft. A value must be given for all works submitted. In the event of a loss, verification of the value of art work will be required. All reasonable care will be exercised in handling entries while at the Homer Watson House and Gallery.
8. The gallery is not responsible for accidental damage caused by normal handling and installation.
9. Quilts must be submitted with a return packaging and prepaid postage unless otherwise agreed upon in writing to be picked-up at the gallery Monday June 4 – 10; 12:30 – 4:30. Work not picked up within one year of the exhibit will become the property of the Gallery unless a loan agreement is secured.
10. Art work must hang in the Gallery until the show is completed.
11. Homer Watson House and Gallery reserves the right of final decision on suitability of subject matter.
