18166 Beginner Painting 30 Minutes a Day

Adult Program with Evan Suzer in the Garden Studio
Mondays, 6:00 - 8:00 pm...$119/$132
November 5 - December 3, 5 weeks

Students will learn one or two acrylic painting methods every week and will create multiple small paintings. Participants will have the opportunity to constructively critique the finished artwork each class. These small reference paintings will help you decide on whether you want to transfer these to a larger canvas.

Supply List

- 5x7 canvas board (for each class)
- Various size of brushes :
  - 1' bright (flat)
  - ¼ bright
  - signature (detail) brush
- Sketch book, pencil, eraser
- Acrylic paints : You can have the basic set of colors (primary colours + black and white)

Notes on buying paints:

- Rather buy a few quality colors of artist's quality acrylics than a whole range of cheap colors. Remember, student acrylic paints are cheaper for a reason: they've usually more filler in them, or made from cheaper pigments. Here are my personal favorites from the brands I've used in paintings:
  - Golden : Fluid or heavy body : very pricey but goes long way, especially if you are planning to paint long term
  - Winsor & Newton : Heavy body. Relatively cheaper than Golden but still good quality
  - Liquitex and Amsterdam: More student and basic , moderate price range
